

Suzanne Sherry

Center for Professional and Executive Development,
Wisconsin School of Business

Suzanne Sherry is a consultant and a founding partner of talentlabs2, LLC, a human capital consulting firm focused on executive coaching. Suzanne has coached executives nationally and worked with business executives with global backgrounds, different functional experience, and within different industries.

Suzanne's background includes a broad talent management lens inclusive of talent acquisition and engagement, as well as sales and marketing experience. Multiple industry exposure including manufacturing and health care, has allowed her the opportunity to align talent management strategies to support the achievement of business outcomes. Suzanne enjoys helping others achieve their professional aspirations.

Suzanne is an active member of MMSHRM, and she holds her BSN from UW-Oshkosh and MBA from UW-Eau Claire. She is certified to facilitate Everything DISC, The Five Dysfunctions of a Team, Situational Leadership II, Korn Ferry leadership and interview architect, Korn Ferry 360 and potential assessments, and is a Six Sigma Green Belt. Suzanne is currently pursuing her ICF executive coaching certification.